

COSTUMES of the WORLD

The dress of these Italian grape-gatherers is exactly suited to the work they have to do, and is as quietly picturesque as are the surroundings. The vineyards from which they get their precious fruit are in the neighbourhood of Naples, one of the most noted wine-producing districts in the world. In ancient Roman times the Falernian wine of this locality was highly esteemed, and the celebrated Roman poet Horace sung its praises.

contained in the Easy Reference Fact-Index at the end of this work